

Fingal: Delivering Success for the Dublin Region

KSA is pleased to announce details of our 2010 conference, which develops key themes of the 2009 “Fingal – an Engine for Change” conference, and raises and responds to major challenges for the next decade.

This conference coincides with the publication of the Draft Fingal Development Plan, 2011-2017 and considers wider issues of the role of strategic planning and economic and market stimulus for achieving current and future success.

Speakers:

Austin Hughes, Chief Economist, KBC Bank

Tom Parlon, Director General, CIF

Dr William Hynes, Director of Strategic Planning, KSA

Aine Myler, Director, Cumisky Myler Real Estate Alliance and President of the IAVI

John Downey, Managing Director, KSA

Representative from a major Multi-National Company in Fingal – to be confirmed

DATE: Wednesday 14th April 2010

VENUE: Carlton Hotel Dublin Airport

TIME: 8.30 – 1pm

Fingal Bay Business Park
Unit 5C, Balbriggan, Co.Dublin

T: + 353 1 690 1600 Email: conference@ksa.ie

Fingal: Delivering Success for the Dublin Region

Key Themes:

- ➔ What challenges do we face in achieving economic success?
- ➔ How can we capture the potential of the Dublin Region and convert that to tangible benefits for the place and its community?
- ➔ Key drivers and new approaches to assist in generating an economic upturn.
- ➔ The role of strategic planning in delivering sustainable development.
- ➔ Capturing success: the key role of promoting innovation and enterprise as fundamental to future growth.
- ➔ Fingal's role as a key driver in the Dublin region.
- ➔ The Fingal Development Plan, 2011-2017: setting a framework for positive growth.

To advance book your place at this conference, please email:
conference@ksa.ie
or call: 01- 690 1600

Please note that this is an advance notice and conference invitations will be issued.